

FIFTH DISTRICT SAVINGS BANK

Fifth District Savings Bank values social media as an opportunity to communicate with the local community. Our social media outlets are monitored during our regular business hours by Fifth District Savings Bank employees, who will do their best to respond to all inquiries in a timely manner.

Because social media platforms are public, we encourage participants to use common courtesy and be respectful when contributing to social media interactions with the Bank. While we would like to foster healthy social discussions, all comments will be reviewed to ensure that they comply with our policies. Any posts that we deem as inappropriate will be removed.

We are pleased to provide useful and exciting information through social media about products and services, as well as offer local community news and other relevant information.

Those interacting with the Bank through social media platforms, including current Fifth District Savings Bank customers, should never disclose personal or financial information through social media platforms. Additional channels for assistance and information are listed below:
